AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: One Hundred and Twenty (120) Months, as to each of Counts 1 and 2 of the Indictment, to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of Three (3) Years, as to each of Counts 1 and 2, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions: (1) the defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318; (2) the defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer; (3) the defendant shall reside at and participate in the Gateways residential drug treatment and counseling program as approved by the U. S. Probation Office, and shall not leave the program until discharged by the Program Director and the Probation Officer (4) during the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer; (5) during the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this Judgment's orders pertaining to such payment; (6) the defendant's employment shall be approved by the Probation Officer; (7) the defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant; and (8) the defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, (and take all prescribed medications), until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately or may be paid during the term of supervised release.

It is further ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $1,675 pursuant to 18 USC Section 3663A.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows: World Savings Bank, $700, Bank of America, $975.

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least $50 shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive approximately proportional payments unless another priority order or percentage is specified in this Judgment.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Section 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

USA vs. JAMES ERNEST DAVISDocket No.: CR06-00812 CBM

The defendant was advised of his right to appeal and if the defendant wishes to have a Notice of Appeal filed, said Notice of Appeal shall be filed by defense counsel.

It is further ordered that the defendant shall keep the 9th Circuit advised of his right to appeal.

THE COURT RECOMMENDS that the defendant be designated to the federal medical center at Springfield.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
